Welcome to today's visitors Tottenham Hotspur who are hard on our heels at the top of the Second Division.

There is no doubt that Spurs, who were relegated last season, intend to bounce back at the first attempt and they have produced some excellent performances this season.

We continued our unbeaten run with a victory at Bristol Rovers on Saturday that was a result of the players' ability to battle on regardless.

On a bumpy pitch against a side determined to give nothing away our players showed another side of their character. I told them that if we had played our normal style of soccer we might not have won, so we got our heads down and fought until things went right.

At the weekend I made the point quite forcibly that here at Bolton we operate a squad system and at the moment we have 17 players in the first team pool.

This means that there is a battle for first team places and that is the way it is going to be.

We have a number of games over the Christmas and New Year holidays and on Boxing Day (December 26) we are at home to Notts County and that game starts at 3 p.m. as does the game at Blackpool the following day.

The game at Millwall on New Year's Eve, which is a Saturday, is also a 3 p.m. start, but fans are asked to note that the game against neighbours Burnley, here at Burnden on January 2 is a 7-30 p.m. pick-off. This is because a number of works in the town will be operating on that day and we want everyone to come along and give their support.

Today's game should be an exciting one and I feel sure that there is room in the First Division for both Bolton Wanderers and Spurs at the final reckoning.

Today's Visitors

The Second Division's two best teams meet at Burnden Park this afternoon in what we all must hope is a prelude to a new series of clashes at First Division level, commencing next season. As we have been mounting our own promotion challenge, one of the hottest chasers all season have been Spurs.

Spurs were shattered last season when they lost their First Division status after an unbroken run of 27 years at the top. During that time they won the European Cup-Winners' Cup, the UEFA Cup, the League Championship twice, the F.A. Cup on three occasions and the League Cup twice. In 1961 they became the first club this century to achieve the League-Cup double.

The Second Division is patently no place for a club of such wonderful recent achievements and everyone at White Hart Lane, from manager Keith Burkinshaw to the most junior apprentice, channelled all their efforts towards putting the club where it belongs without any delay.

After remaining unbeaten in their first eight League games, the players began to believe they were good enough to return at the first attempt. Later, with only two defeats in 15 games, they were all convinced they had the ability.

Their home League Cup defeat by Coventry City in the third round caused few tears; it merely left everyone free to concentrate upon their chief objective of promotion.

At one stage he had four strikers unavailable! Top scorer John Duncan (he has 10 goals at the moment), Chris Jones, Martin Robinson and Gerry Armstrong were all side-lined.

The only thing to do was to go out and buy a new striker. Mr. Burkinshaw paid Torquay United £60,000 for Colin Lee, who had never played any higher than in Third Division football in his life, and he recalled Ian Moores for his first League game of the season against Bristol Rovers.

Lee made an astonishing Second Division bow by scoring four goals!

Moores got a hat-trick. And poor Rovers were sent packing to a 9-0 defeat.

Another encouraging thing has been the return to form of England winger Peter Taylor. Signed from Crystal Palace for £200,000, Taylor took a long while to settle down at White Hart Lane. But he confirmed his restoration to top form by scoring six goals in a recent seven-match spell.

The remainder of the Tottenham team has been fairly settled. Barry Daines has at last been rewarded for his loyalty by getting the goalkeeper's job. The number two to Northern Ireland's Pat Jennings for so many years, Barry got a good run last season when Jennings was injured and played so magnificently as to put Jennings' position in some doubt.

Steve Perryman, a former England under-23 midfield player, has been operating behind the big Keith Osgood. Terry Naylor and Republic of Ireland international Jimmy Holmes, a £120,000 signing from Coventry last season, have been filling the full-back positions.

Glen Hoddle, Neil McNab and John Pratt have taken over as the regular midfield unit.

Relegation had been beckoning Spurs for two or three years before they eventually came down this year. In 1975 they were saved only by a last-match win over Leeds, which sent Luton Town down.

Last season they were always in the danger zone even though it was not until their penultimate match, when they were crushed 5-0 at Manchester City that their fate was finally decided.

Now there is a completely new spirit at White Hart Lane. Whereas a feeling of depression had pervaded the place for the best part of three years, the team believes in itself again now. And, with so many fine results behind them already, manager Burkinshaw is justified in feeling hopeful that his promotion dream will be achieved at the first attempt.

Wanderers Promotions

FOUR ARE HONOURED

Today, before the game, four people are being honoured by Bolton Wanderers.

Presentations are being made by Denis Law, former Manchester United, Manchester City, and Scotland International, to George Taylor, Tony Dunne, Willie Morgan and Peter Thompson.

George has reached his 50th year in soccer — as a Bolton player, coach chief scout and backroom adviser. Tony, Willie and Peter, who have all reached the heights as internationals, winning many of the honours in the game have all passed the milestone of playing 500 League games.

To mark these achievements, the Wanderers are happy to have Denis Law here at Burnden to make the presentation. We wish them all well for the future.

Meet the Referee...

ARNOLD CHALLINOR (Maltby, near Rotherham). Started refereeing in 1955 with Rotherham League and then, via the Midland and Central Leagues reached the Football League line in 1971 and later the full list. Refereed Midland League championship and Cup Final matches and lined an international youth tournament in 1976 and a sixth round FA Cup match the same year. Married, he is a colliery deputy and is interested in youth clubs. He was a part-time youth leader for 10 years and is also interested in gardening, badminton and table tennis. Played football as an amateur but an early injury, at 17, caused him to turn to refereeing.
